IN REPLY PLEASE REFER TO

Mr. Allan Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I thank you so very much for your letters of endorsement to the Council of Foreign Relations and The Century Club. I am deeply honored and touched that you would wish to speak on my behalf. You have no idea how much I appreciate this.

The idea of writing some articles on Asia for publication interests me very much. The prospect of getting anything published is something else again. In any event I shall try, for it is a neglected area - at least currently - in some of our magazines. I would awfully like to get something in Foreign Affairs.

I hope to be visiting Washington from time to time and would like to call on you when you have a moment. The Indonesian picture seems quite distressing.

With much appreciation and highest regards.

Sincerely,
